

NOAH CHARNEY

---

Visionary leader, inspirational naturalist, award-winning author.

SKILLS

Writing Accomplishments

- National Outdoor Book Award – Best Nature Guidebook
- American Library Association – Outstanding Academic Title
- Author of 17 scientific journal articles on ecology, conservation, wildlife, forests
- Author of 6 technical reports for endangered species agency

Public Speaking

- Delivered over 50 public lectures, seminars, and workshops
- Taught 16 college courses spanning 10 years with outstanding reviews

Ecology Research

- Awarded over $200,000 in competitive funding for ecology research
- Worked on over a dozen field ecology studies
- Certified in wildlife tracking

Nonprofit Leadership

- Founder/Director of conservation organization, 2006 – present
- Editorials and interviews for over 50 television, radio, and newsprint articles
- Manage successful conservation campaigns protecting hundreds of acres
- Coordinate with partner non-profit and government agencies
- Develop educational outreach programs and website

POSITIONS HELD

Radnor To River: Executive Director 2011 – present

American Turtle Observatory: Advisory Board 2015 – present

Researcher, Giant Tortoise Restoration Initiative, Galapagos Conservancy 2015 – present.

University of Arizona: Research Associate 2013 – present

Bryn Mawr College: Research Associate 2015 – present

Hampshire College: Visiting Assistant Professor 2012 – 2014

Mount Holyoke College: Visiting Assistant Professor 2012- 2013

University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur: Visiting Researcher 2012

Amherst College: Teaching Fellow 2003- 3005

EDUCATION

PhD Organismic and Evolutionary Biology, University of Massachusetts Amherst, 2010

BA Physics, Amherst College, 2002